

BINGHAM FEARS THOUSANDS WILL BE DISFRANCHISED

Impossible to Fulfill "Personal Identification" Law in Required Eleven Hours.

1,000 IN SOME DISTRICTS.

Asks Corporation Counsel's Advice as to Voters' Rights and Police Duties.

Gov. Hughes's "personal identification" law, which will operate in Greater New York on Election Day, disfranchises thousands of registered voters, according to the belief expressed today by Police Commissioner Bingham. Gen. Bingham has asked Corporation Counsel Pendleton for an opinion as to the duties of the police on Nov. 3, when a large proportion of the voters will have been barred from getting in their ballots because of the lack of time to vote in accordance with the law within the eleven hours that the polls are to stay open.

Indications are that the law will prove unconstitutional should it deprive any voter of his ballot, but Gen. Bingham, Superintendent of Elections William Leary, the Election Commissioners and the practical leaders of both political parties do not care to be put in the position of "locking the door after the horse has been stolen."

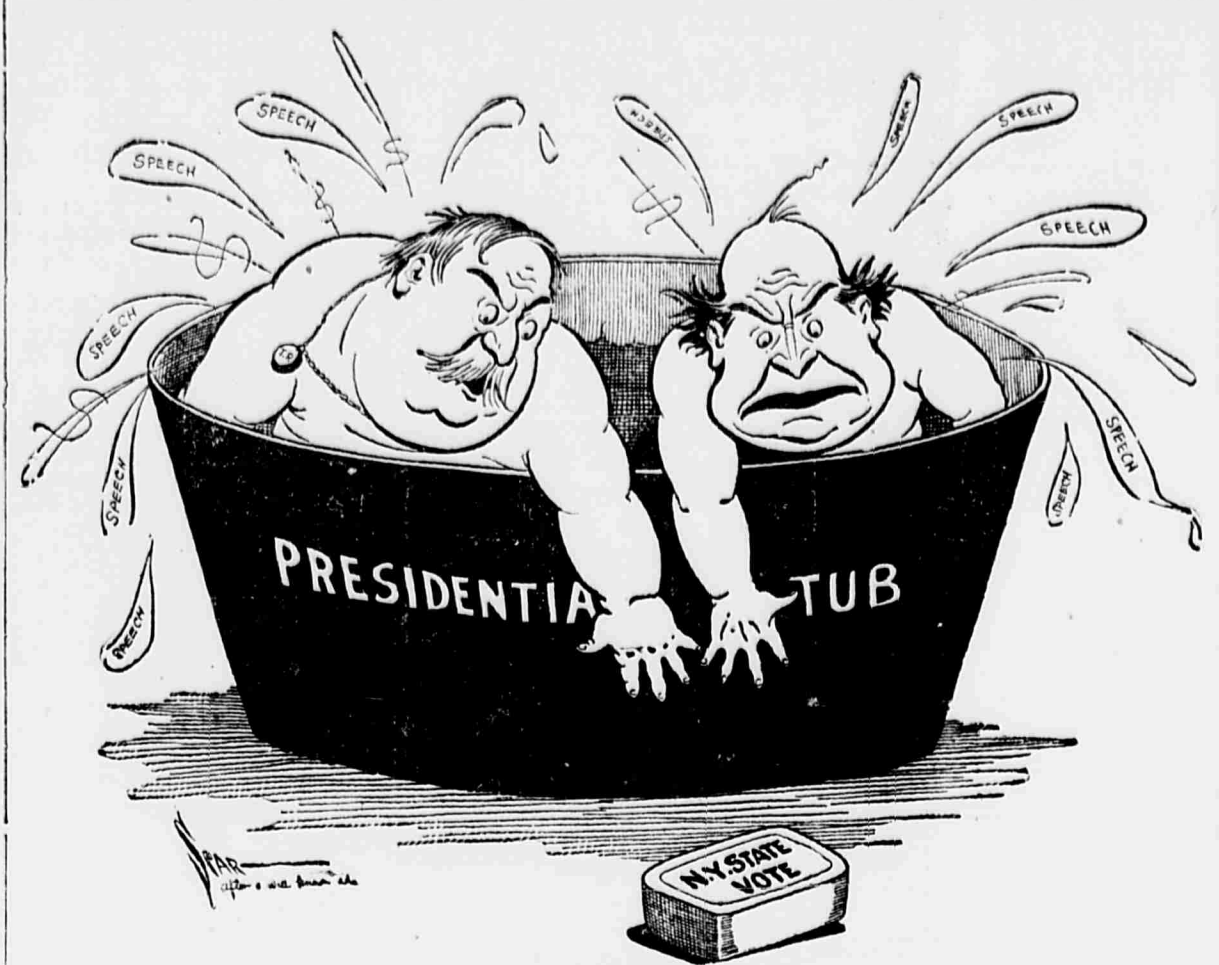

Can't Vote in Allotted Time. The close calculations of the Bureau of Elections have discovered that over one-half of the election districts of the greater city have 600 enrolled voters and more. The voting period is from 6 A. M. to 5 P. M., or just 60 minutes, and it is admitted to be a physical impossibility for a voter to mark his ballot and either answer all the "personal identification" questions or sign the election rolls for a comparison of his signature with the one he made when he registered.

At least one-third of the election districts of the city, particularly on the lower east side, the middle west side, portions of the Bronx and portions of Brooklyn have up to one thousand voters on the rolls.

Superintendent of Elections Leary has appealed to the Attorney-General for an opinion, while here is the conundrum framed by Gen. Bingham for the Corporation Counsel:

What Bingham Asks.
"If at the hour set for the closing of the polls a number of the electors were in the polling place before such an hour, who have not yet received ballots, appeal to the police officers to enforce their assertion of the right to vote. What shall the police officer do?

BILL WON'T BE HAPPY TILL HE GETS IT

"If after the hour set for the closing of the polls, the election officials continue to deliver ballots to those who, although present at the polling place, had not up to such hour received ballots, and also continue to receive ballots from such electors, what action, if any, should the police officer take?"

In his third and fourth questions, Gen. Bingham raises the same two points in behalf of registered voters who are outside the polling place and unable to enter because of the lack of room at the time the polls close.

In his final legal nut Gen. Bingham asks for directions for his police should the election officials just prior to the closing of the polls distribute ballots to electors present before such hour at the polling place, either inside or without the building.

LILLIAN RUSSELL'S HOME IS FOR SALE.

Lillian Russell, who is starring in the race-track play, "Wildfire," at the Liberty Theatre, has decided to sell her house at No. 101 West Fifty-seventh street, and it is now on the market. Miss Russell will go on the road shortly in "Wildfire," and expects to be away from New York for some time. This was the reason she gave last night for deciding to sell her home.

AUSTRIANS HOLD MONTENEGRIN ENVOY

The General left Cetinje Oct. 17 for Belgrade on a special commission to the Servian Government. No reasons for his detention can be obtained here.

QUIGG FACTION LOSES IN ITS FIGHT ON PAGE.

Contending that as the State had stepped in and taken a hand in the election of party leaders, under the primary law, those leaderships now constitute public offices, Lemuel Ely Quigg's law partner, Charles B. Coleman, on behalf of William Hahn, today applied to Justice Ruess, in the Supreme Court, for a peremptory mandamus directing the Board of Elections to cancel the certificate of election issued to Charles B. Page as executive member for the Thirteenth Assembly District in the Republican County Committee, on the ground that he is a member of the Board of Elections, and the law says a man shall not hold two offices at once.

Hahn is the Quigg-Odell candidate for leader, while Page was the Parsons-better-element candidate. Page led Hahn by eighteen votes at the primary election. The Quigg side hoped to oust Page and seat Hahn. They took this roundabout way to get at it.

Justice Truax denied the motion and the Quigg men went out to think up some new way to bother Herbert Parsons.

EARTHQUAKE AGAIN SHAKES PHILIPPINES

MANILA, Oct. 20.—Following the three shocks of earthquake that occurred yesterday the phenomenon was repeated to-day between 11 and 12 o'clock. The observatory reports that the focus or centre of the first disturbance was within 200 kilometres of Manila. The seismographs recorded several light shocks that were otherwise imperceptible.

The city has suffered no damage and reports from the interior and neighboring islands indicate that there has been no loss elsewhere.

PENILESS, TRIES TO DIE.

Electrician Stabs Himself in Room in a Mills Hotel.

Adam P. Everett, thirty-six years old, tried to end his life to-day in his room in the Mills Hotel No. 3, Thirty-sixth street and Seventh avenue, by stabbing himself twice in the right side with a pocket knife. He was found by a chambermaid and taken to New York Hospital, where it was said he will recover.

Everett recently returned from a trip to the West, where he had hoped to get a good job at his trade of electrician. He said he had spent his last cent to hire the room in which he tried to kill himself.

The Wanamaker Galleries Furnishings & Decoration

The Glamour of Association in Our Period Decoration and "Assembling"

THE periods in furnishing are not measured off like the squares on a checkerboard and, as startling as it may seem, a really true period room is not a period room at all—in usage common to most decorators.

When you dump a suit of Louis XV. furniture into a room and lay down an Aubusson rug and stand a few pieces of Sevres China about and come home all out of breath with an ormolu clock under your arm for the chimney piece, you have not got a Louis XV. room.

A real Louis Quinze Parlor, dominated by a taste of Du Barri, would have to contain some things from the Grand Monarque's reign, and the rugs very likely would not have been Aubusson and may have been born in the Valley of the Nile, and there would not have been a six-piece suit of furniture, and there would have been a great deal of coziness and elegance because Du Barri had given the room a SOUL!

It is this glamour of association that our artists, designers and assemblers have so charmingly expressed in the "House Palatial," which is a quarter million dollar house built into our Galleries, with a fine old Georgian Hall and staircase and twenty-two rooms all in real period effects.

It is this glamour of association, this story-book, poetic, psychic addition to the furnishings that they are especially able to assist you in obtaining.

You see, our experts are men of culture who have traveled and studied and dreamed, who are enthusiasts—with a song in their hearts, and who will not offer you a "personally conducted" scheme, but will loyally help you reflect yourself in your work.

Nevertheless, no charge is made for any suggestion they make, and you shall not be under the slightest obligation to purchase.

Bring your plans and blue prints when you call; or 'phone, or drop us a postal card and make an appointment for one of our experts to call on you.

What "Wanamaker-Originator" Means in the Hosiery and Underwear Store

Improvements here or there, something invented or discovered to make an article fit better or wear longer; some one thing or another done better than before.

WE WERE FIRST to seize the opportunity of buying direct from the manufacturer, and give our customers either the same garment for less money or a better garment for the same money.

WE WERE FIRST and are probably the only store today to have a complete and genuine "January Clearance Sale"—where all odd lots and last year's patterns are closed out at a loss, rather than carry them over.

WE WERE FIRST, and again stand nearly alone, in taking back the goods that have not been satisfactory—without any quibbling, whether the manufacturer is responsible or not.

WE WERE FIRST to demand the freshest patterns in fine French hosiery and to escape the exorbitant prices charged by the wholesale importing houses, by going directly to the French manufacturers to bring over these fine, rare things to sell on a fair profit basis like any other merchandise.

THIS WAS THE FIRST UNDERWEAR STORE to reject the badly cut, poorly sized and skimmed low-priced underwear and hosiery. We closed the door until certain broad-minded manufacturers found it advisable to make for us good, well-fitting garments even in the low-priced grades.

THIS STORE INVENTED the cotton garter top silk stocking, which today is the very best selling silk stocking in the world. It enables women with a taste for silk stockings to wear them all the time without paying much more than the price for cotton and lisle sorts.

THIS WAS THE FIRST HOSIERY STORE to use linen splicing in the feet of stockings to make them wear better. The first store to put in extra heavy toes. We do not guarantee any stocking to wear six months, but those which have been reinforced as above we guarantee to wear as well or better, than any of the so-called "guaranteed stockings" costing double. If the stockings fail in this, we will exchange them for other stockings, or refund your money without any quibbling—no coupons or other inconvenient technicalities.

THIS WAS THE FIRST UNDERWEAR STORE to devise properly shaped and well-set-in reinforcements for men's and boys' drawers.

THIS WAS THE FIRST HOSIERY STORE to find a way to have children's circular-leg stockings made narrower at the ankle, and to insist on its being done.

THIS WAS THE FIRST HOSIERY STORE to import French black silk stockings that were absolutely fast in color.

The garments and the stockings will speak for themselves when you see them. Fall and Winter stocks were never more inviting than now.
